Projects

Weather App

I used the Astro framework for the weather site. The search system allows you to retrieve weekly and daily weather information

Translate

I used React.Js and Tailwind CSS for the translation site. You can translate and save in over 200 languages

Exchange

I used React.Js, TypeScript, Chart.js, and Tailwind CSS for the exchange site. In this, you can add and view your daily and monthly reports. You can easily and quickly find the necessary information using the filter to sort by date

Info Countries

I used Webpack, JavaScript, and SASS . You can get information about countries and explore each country in detail. A search system is also available, allowing you to quickly and easily find the country you are looking for
